	The heifers were all very placid when walking amongst them to take video, a couple got a little agitated when in the confines of the crush, but given normal husbandry these heifers should be easy to handle.

Assessor Comments	A nice yard of well bred heifers with good breeding background that will go on to become good breeders for someone or feeders that will improve quickly with warm weather and feed. One heifer was treated recently as she showed rubbing on the neck (see photo) but a few others are showing rub marks.
