Assessor Comments	A line of very good quality 2.5 year old, Tattykeel Aussie White blood ewes. The Coleman family have been using Tattykeel stud rams for the last 9 years, with some rams being sourced from Kalnari in the last 3 years, originally over there White dorper ewes, and then their subsequent progeny, to now be able to offer to you these young Aussie White ewes with their whole life in front of them. These ewes have been selected for growth, fertility and their shedding ability, and have just had 141% of lambs weaned off them. They are well grown for the breed, and most are in joinable condition. 1 ewe was noted with horns, see photo. Buyers please note, these ewes are running as a mob of 79, and are being offered as 2 lots of 40, and 39. They will be drafted, one each way, at delivery.
