Assessor Comments	Towonga Merino Stud offers an excellent line of young ewes that are a week off shears and are really bouncing away. As the assessment shows they are in good condition and would join up as either merino flock improvers or top terminal mothers. There are 2 drops with approximately 95 Apr/May '20 drop and 225 Aug/Sept '20 drop. As you can see by the weights there is great potential as the younger ewes continue to grow and catch their sisters. There is approximately 20 % with slight scur. They will not disappoint any purchaser.
