| Assessor Comments            | A good sized line of future breeders ewe hgts, vendor bred in the Jamestown district, Keatley family are renowned Merino breeders breeding Mt Lock stud rams for many years and are now offering up their commercial ewe hoggets. These ewes have good stretchy frames and are looking to gain weight and condition quickly on quality feed and will join up well to the rams if freshened up a bit. These ewes will grow into your 65-70kg breeding ewe cutting a large quantity of medium micron wool. Merino wether lambs easily reach export weights at 10mths of age so the progeny from these ewes will grow out nicely.
