	Placid natured, bucket reared Heifers. Could try and behave little bit spoilt and try to avoid walking up through the gates, or just stop and stand in the gate way. A slight tap with the poly pipe helped with negotiations.

Assessor Comments	Long, deep bodied vealer factories doing a super job on their big paddies. All in fresh healthy condition. Calves already have 1 foot on the till and won't take long to finish off. Re-Dep to the Alpine Angus sires providing a potential 3in1 unit. Prefect lot to add to an existing vealer operation & replace some empties, or for a smaller scale hobby farm to secure a vealer mother without the need for a bull in the near future. Please see photos & video for full contentment.
