| Assessor Comments   | Offering a line of Hereford / Angus cross heifers that would be ideal to take on to heavier weights. Cattle present with good frame and are in store condition offering a great opportunity with prosperous months ahead. At assessment (3) blue or cloudy eyes noticed. (1) Heifer had a popped eye on near side.                                                                           |                                           |                                        |
