Assessor Comments	A smart lot of Angus heifers that are coming out of a wet winter and just starting to put weight back on after calving. They are ready to join to the bull of your choice. All the work has been done,calves marked, vaccinated and ID to mothers. Calves are all fresh and sappy with plenty of bone, lenght and shape. One heifers has an old pink eye scarring in one eye and there is some ringworm present on four heifers mainly around the face.(not seen as detrimental)
