Assessor Comments	Offering 148 good quality crossbred steers. These steers averaged 261kg live at assessment. The steers are majority branded N0.1 with approximately 11 No.0 steers sighted through the mob. The oldest looking 21 were mouthed at assessment with all found to have milk teeth (please see photos). The steers present in light condition but plenty of frame and are really starting to power along with the recent green feed on offer. Buyers these steers will not disappoint with the Willsdown Pastoral cattle having a very good name for being, good doing cattle. Please note at assessment the following was noted. Eight were sighted with lumps on the neck from previous Botulism needles, 2 with lightly weeping eyes and 1 with old blight scarring. Also noted 2 steers sighted with slightly swollen purses but are soft to touch when checked.
