| Assessor Comments  | A very nice line of Angus Steers, they have good shape and bone. They will be ideal steers to grow out for the feedlots or to take through to heavy steers. Note some steers have a few fungus spots not detrimental and vendor has another lot in this sale. NOTE: 2 steers have white under cod area                                                                                       |
