	Naturally quiet cattle that handled easily through the crush during the weighing process. They were a little worried being handled by strangers but settled immediately once back with their mates. The videos give a good indication of their temperament
Handled With	Bikes , Vehicles

Assessor Comments	A classy line of Angus steers, bred predominantly from Temania bloodlines. Bred from large frame cows, these steers show excellent weight and growth for age being Mar/April drop. They show great shape of body and certainly bred to perform. Their quiet temperament is shown nicely in the following videos. Some steers were marked with a knife from a different
