| Assessor Comments  | A nice even line of quality yearling friesland steers that present in forward fresh condition. These steers are renowned for performing in multiple feedlots and Eirenclore farms present these steers year after year. These steers will grow out to outstanding bullocks on grass or on feed.                                                                                              |
