| Assessor Comments  | A wonderful run of exceptionally quiet steers that are on the do and will bound away on good feed. They are very used to human contact and have been fed hay regularly. Get on board and secure these steers that will look an absolute picture as big prime steers in twelve months                                                                                                         |
