	Weaners were an absolute breeze to handle in yards. Occasional steer did have slight rush around yards when pressure was applied, but quickly calmed when that pressure was removed, would consider that this is only typical of age. Steers have been handled by vendor on her own & are used to daily interaction with her.
Handled With	Bikes , On foot
Assessor Comments	F1 Speckle Park Angus cross steers still on their mothers and will be weaned onto the truck on delivery. These steers are quiet and should not disappoint given the opportunity. Vendor has signed Pasturefed Cattle Assurance System Non-Certified Supplier Declaration so they can go into either grass fed or grain fed programs. Please note at least 2 steers seen with slight blue eye scarring & around 4 are showing signs of being marked late, with one steer still having remnants of a purse still attached at assessment. There are 2 red Speckle Park steers in this lot, nothing considered detrimental. Vendor has 11 heifer weaners (sisters to these) in todays sale.
