Temperament not assessed in
Paddock

These animals handle very well in an open environment, once confined into a smaller yard or pen it was evident the Wagyu temperament trait was dominant. Definitely no aggression, merely just flighty and in some what of a hurry when pressured.

Assessor Comments

Shrublands Estate of Thornton, Vic are offering their entire drop of Wagyu infused weaners for genuine sale. This particular draft represents the top selection of mixed sex weaners for sale. Sired by an extremely high indexing Peppermill Grove Full Blood Wagyu Bull & out of some of the best HBR & APR Shrublands Estates Heifers provides you a recipe for success in the F1 market. With a sensational spring growth period upon us it would be a fantastic opportunity to take these animals on to a Feedlot entry weight come early next year.
