Cattle are easily managed without being dog quiet. They ran through crush/weigh seamlessly, due to being yard trained. refer video.

Assessor Comments A small yet well presented line of Charolais/Angus steers that would usually be retained and finished. Only being offered due to slight change in operation. Have been bred to preform in feedlot situation and or grass finisher. Please note that these steers have been in containment yard with ad-lib hay, so the weight you are seeing is mostly all frame and bone. In good position to really stick some weight on given the right opportunities. Out of good framed commercial cows by high growth Rangan bull. The steers were easily handled in yards with out being dog quiet (refer video).
