Vendor Comments	Very well bred line of Angus x steers. My first time having livestock on property and they have been very well to handle. Quiet easy to handle cattle that will be great for any other small time producers.

	Cattle were sexed prior to weighing process and were good to handle with only having a week weaned. Cattle displayed knowledge of yards and were not aggressive or fast to handle. Cattle in race did tend to jump on each other under confined spaces and pressure. In the paddock they are very quiet with the vendor always hand feeding them bread each day and walking through the mobs.

Assessor Comments

Outstanding line of Angus X steers. Steers have been thriving on native pastures and will keep progressing through the summer months with ample of feed. Steers which are presented in forward store condition running on pasture and currently weaning onto silage. Steers are showing great shape, frame and structure and would suit any small block to grow out into feeder or export weights. Grass fed & antibiotics free Buyers Note Sisters in same sale
