Assessor Comments	A very well bred and attractive line of young Hereford Females, the depth and years of breeding are displayed in this line of principally medium framed, rich coated, solid boned Heifers. They present in strong forward condition ideally suited to go into calving with all females visually showing signs of being in calf and beginning to soften down. A rare opportunity to purchase "Marlex" females which are classed breeders not culls. These young females will continue to mature with age and have the potential to be deep sided volume matrons of a herd. The Vendor has retained a strong focus on type, productivity and fertility as their key principles of selection. These visually appealing females represent over 70 years of breeding and are selected from the heart of the 2020 crop of heifers.
