|                    | The heifers were a pleasure to handle. They could not be any quieter and moved forward with a click of the fingers. Exceptionally quiet and took instruction well                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                              |                 |
