Assessor Comments	A small mob of vendor bred cows and calves that do not fit into the vendors calving. The cows have had bulls running with them while calving, but have not been preg tested. One Cow has an old Blue (marble) eye, not considered detrimental and no vision issues were observed. There are 3 Blue Roan cows and another 3 Angus cross cows that do have varying amounts of white on the underline. The cows are in a good store to forward store condition doing a good job on their calves. There is a variance in calf weight as age varies from a couple of weeks old to 3 months old.
