Temperament	Yards	Crush	Paddock
	Quiet: 19 head	Quiet: 13 head Slightly Stirry: 6 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock
	Steers worked yards easily and seemed quiet at assessment. Typical weaners once one goes they all want to following with some rush about them. At least 6 got upset on scales but quickly calmed down once released.

Handled With	Bikes , Dogs
Assessor Comments	19 light steers being currently weaned since Sunday. These steers are predominantly Angus, there are at least 3 with small horn, 1 black baldy, 1 with slight blue roan coat. These steers would go well on the oast and will not disappoint. Please note, at least 2 steers seen with slight blue eye, 2 steers seen with a weepy eye, I'm assuming dust from yards may of irritated. Also to note the majority of steers have Bathurst burr seed in coat's including polls, bellies and tails. Nothing considered detrimental.
