Assessor Comments	Nice little line of well bred Ewes and lambs. Girls that have their 'hey days' behind them and are on their way out, but had a chance mating and have produced a fresh young lamb. These Ewes carry some very good bloodlines, and although on their way out, present a very good opportunity for a buyer to pick up some young lambs carrying very good genetics. Buyers please Note. Some of these Ewes carry a fault from the effects of the years catching up on them, a few long back toes, the odd eye scarring. These Ewes are all considered fit to rear this years lamb with a small amount that could carry on for a few more years to come. Please see photos and video for full contentment.
