Assessor Comments	Attention all restockers, today we have to offer 18 vendor bred Brangus Charolais Cross Heifers. The Heifers are currently being weaned at the Murgon Saleyards for ease of clearing and being fed on grassy lucerne hay. The Heifers are sired by Burenda Brangus bulls and this is seen throughout their quality. They all presented well and handled through the yards with ease. On assessment the Heifers averaged 196kg on delivery and showed great shape and frame for age. These Heifers will suit anyone's program and will make tremendous future breeders. Please do take note that Vendors also has Steers in the same sale from the same location. These cattle were located in the Tick area however have had a pretreatment and are now at the Murgon Saleyard, Vendor will pay clear of the dip for anyone in clean country. On assessment it was noted that one Heifer had a cloudy eye however not detrimental to the animal.
