All steers were good to handle through the yards and crush. A few moved a little quick when pressure was put on them/going through gates due to being young. Most simply walked through the yards and all settled when left alone.

Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	Good quality hereford steers. Will suit backgrounding job. They have a nice quiet temperament and were easy to handle. *Note: One steer was seen to have a bit of old blight scarring on one eye and one steer had forward facing eyes that bulged slightly. Neither were affected by them. *Note: Cattle were in the yards overnight before weighing but still on cows. Were split a couple hours before weighing. Vendor has another lot of heifers in this sale.
