Assessor Comments	Presented in forward store condition is a run of 21 September/October drop vendor-bred weaner heifers. These future breeders are true to type of tablelands bred cattle and will perform well in a range of climatic conditions. Heifers are calm and flow well through the yards, which is a testament to their yard weaning experience. These future matrons support a range of operations, presenting many options for future production. Sired by a Karoo Bull and ready to join in the spring to the Bull of your choice. Please note: One heifer has slight scarring in one eye, not detrimental or greatly effecting vision. please refer to photograph.
