The Steers had a tendency to run a little when first put into the yards. The odd one wanted to get out of your way under pressure. They have had limited handling this year due to being on the wrong side of the creek and will quieten down with handling .They have been educated to dogs.

Assessor Comments

Very well bred Poll Hereford steers that are weaned and going forward. Steers with very good bone and muscle pattern that have the attributes to put on a lot of weight. They will finish on grain or grass very quickly. The steers have been bred on pure Onslow bloodlines for many years and more recently Kidman bulls have been purchased. There is another four local district lots in this sale as well.
