		Cattle were quite fractious in the yards as the process went on, as typical of the Limousin/Angus x Breed. They yarded quite well and were easy to move up. Just becoming quite reactive when in the forcing pen and being moved up the race. Most stood quite well in the crush and exited sensibly. Young steers that have had minimal handling and will definitely benefit from further education.
Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	Good line of trade steers to take on. Young steers that carry plenty of frame and will have no trouble filling out into well covered bodies. Good bone, length, depth & shape. Young Steers with plenty going for them, just needing some further handling & education to help with temperament/nerves. Very healthy young steers that are cleaning up in the coat and on the do. Please see photos & video
