Temperament Yards Crush Paddock
Quiet: 5 head Quiet: 5 head Temperament not assessed in Slightly Stirry: 3 head Slightly Stirry: 3 head Paddock
Cattle were quite fractious in the yards as the process went on. They yarded quite well and were easy to move up. Just becoming quite reactive when in the forcing pen and being moved up the race. Most stood quite well in the crush and exited

Handled With	sensibly. Young steers that have had minimal handling and will definitely benefit from further education. Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	Good little line of trade steers to take on that already have one foot on the till. Cattle with plenty of frame that will have no trouble filling out into well covered bodies. Good bone, length, depth & shape. Healthy steers with plenty going for them, just needing some further handling & education to help with temperament/nerves. Clean in the coat and on the do. Some steers show a bit of slight limo infusion from some old F2/F3 Limousin/Angus Breeders still in the herd - just showing through a bit in butt shape - NVD will state Angus x Angus. Please see photos & video for full contentment.
