Assessor Comments	A handy line of first calving heifers doing a good job on their first calves. Heifers are of medium to larger frame types and carry a good temperament. Heifers would be ideal to carry through as future breeders if desired or also represent a sound trade opportunity. Please note exact breeding is not known on the cattle though they present even as a group and exhibit typical Angus traits but will not be guaranteed.Please view photos and video or call for more information. Vendor also offering a single cow and calf unit in the same sale.
