	Steers moved through the yards at pace. They do block up when drafting but experienced stock handling recommended. Steers would improve under more handling

Assessor Comments	24 Angus Weaned Steers. These Angus steers are very well bred by Twynam blood Angus Cows by very good Onslow

Angus bulls. They have a mile of stretch, bone and depth for age and will continue to develop into very good heavy feed steers or export kill weights. Steers have had a very good start on the lucerne and oats and will just continue forward on good feed.
