Well behaved young cattle that will only improve with handling. Temporary yards where the main issue when handling and in the crush. Heifers were good to handle in yards with the odd one becoming a little agitated in a noisy crush before settling fine when returned to the herd.

Handled With: Bikes , Dogs , Horses , On foot , Vehicles

Assessor Comments: These heifers have been running in the hills at Yarck on natural pastures and would thrive given the right conditions, they are fresh store heifers with a bright future in front of them. Vendor has bought these animals with an eye for quality both in heifer selection and bulls procured to join with. Ideal females for any operation looking to obtain great bloodlines and young stock to add to or start a herd. Ready to go on with in this bouyant market. Please note vendor has two other lots in sale. One heifer has an old pink eye scar.
