| Assessor Comments  | Solid Yavenvale blood cows to take on. These cows show plenty of bone, type, great pigment and have a fantastic temperament. Joined to Yavenvale bulls noted for heifer joinings. Expected to commence calving in the last week of August. $2000 reserve.                                                                                                                                   |
