	A very easy line of heifers to assess and handle through the yards, a few heifers literally had to be pushed into the crush. They were no trouble to handle through the yards at all, a minority became slightly stirred when caught for assessment and preg testing.
Handled With	Dogs , Horses , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	A very neat line of Lawson's Angus blood heifers that present in perfect condition to be taken out to calve. These heifers present a fantastic opportunity for producers to integrate some very reputable bloodlines into their herd with all the hard work done, boasting impressive genetics and an opportunity to purchase heifers with plenty of stretch and frame these females are all AI'd into Lawsons Momentum M518. Buyers please note that these girls are preg tested in with 32 in the first AI and 9 in the second AI round, all females can be traced through their rounds with management tags. This high quality line of females would stand out in some of the best herds or present an opportunity to calve down and trade some top class heifers, they come with the highest of recommendations and prospective buyers can purchase with confidence.
