Temperament	Yards	Crush	Paddock
	Quiet: 13 head	Quiet: 12 head Slightly Stirry: 1 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock
	Temperament is no issue with these cows. All were quiet to handle in the yards. One cow stirred up slightly while being mouthed but was settled when put back in the mob.
Handled With	Bikes , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	These cows are good genuine breeders. Only being sold to make room for younger replacements. These cows are part of a herd which produce good calves which are noted for good temperament and are usually purchased by return buyers. The cows are by Witherswood And Prime Angus bulls and are PTIC to a Prime Angus bull - Prime Maximus P51. (Copy of registration & EBV's in photos) The purchaser has the option of taking or leaving the Charolais x cow which is the youngest cow in the mob. The 5 oldest cows were mouthed with one missing two front teeth but were strong and sound other than that. All cows appear to be very sound in the feet. One cow was noted with a very minor cloudy eye.
