Assessor Comments	A good run of Yamburgan blood EU Shorthorn steers. The Harding family's Shorthorn herd has been established for over 80 years, and using Yamburgan bulls for 20 years. Vendor stated that their breeders are classed by John Manchee. The steers have running on green oats and are right on the go and very quiet to handle. These cattle are usually kept and sold into major feedlots at heavy weights and have been treated with a Bovilis. Please note there was a small percentage of steers that had odd ring worm scarring and is not considered detrimental.
