	Cattle were a pleasure to handle, have been worked in both large and small mobs, work well in the yards and to draft. Some uneasy in the crush but settle as a mob well.

Assessor Comments	Breeders of the future, these are the tops of the drop of the Blaxland Pastoral calves, with no heifers being retained. They have come through a wet cold winter and are really on the improve now. These heifers have been weighed out to be all joining weights and would take a bull from any time now. They are out of cows we have purchased via breeders on Auctionsplus with some well known and strong bloodlines in the calves, including Team Te Mania, Booroomooka, Dunoon and Rennylea. The heifers will continue to grown and really stack the weight on over Spring. Buy with confidence these cattle will perform or become your future breeders.
