|                    | As a mob in the paddock they are generally very settled with only two of the steers always looking a bit nervous. The steers were good to draft but some did stir in the crush but settled reasonably well when back in the group.                                                                                                                                                           |                                                            |                                           |
