| Assessor Comments  | Healthy young fresian steers really on the do after a wet and cold winter. These steers were part of a larger run with a neat single deck line selected for their uniformity. Mustered and drafted the day prior, these steers are all frame for the weight.                                                                                                                                 |
